

qfactor

dialogues 2007 festival of electronic music

16-17 February 2007

QH THE QUEENS
HALL

qfactor

16-17 February 2007

Dialogues and The Queen's Hall proudly present qfactor: two days of the very best live electronics, exploring the space between composition, improvisation, electronica and jazz.

Beatbox (PLUSH Records): Drummer Steve Argüelles and VJ Miyako

Icarus (Leaf Records, Hydrogen Dukebox, Output Recordings): Sam Britton and Ollie Bown on laptops and live algorithms.

McFalls³: A new project for Mr McFall's Chamber using computers and three electric string instruments.

Not Applicable Artists: Freetronica from Ollie Bown and Sam Britton featuring Tom Arthurs (Trumpet), Maurizio Ravalico (Percussion) and Lothar Ohlmeier (Sax).

Oren Marshall (Slowfoot Records): Tuba and live electronics.

Pohlitz (Rune Grammofon): Thomas Strønen's solo project for percussion and electronics.

The programme is accompanied by a series of artist talks and presentations at the University of Edinburgh.

Full details available at www.dialogues-festival.org
www.thequeenshall.net

Doors: tbc please check web site for details

Tickets: £15/£10 Festival Pass (both nights)

Booking hotline: 0131 777 1006

Online booking: www.thequeenshall.net

LOTTERY FUNDED

NORWEGIAN CONSULATE GENERAL

designate
if you want to be heard, speak clearly